

Albert H. Parnell Outstanding Program Chair Award

This award honors an individual who created a dynamic educational program enhancing DRI's image, and who further has led and participated in the effective planning, marketing, and presentation of that educational program. The honoree also displayed leadership, dedication, and creativity in seminar development. Above all of these achievements, the program met organizational expectations established for the seminar.

Recipient:

Laura D. Eschleman
Nall & Miller LLP
Atlanta, GA

Laura D. Eschleman is a partner at Nall & Miller. She practices in the areas of medical malpractice, professional licensing, medical board matters, and hospital privileging issues, and she has represented numerous medical professionals, including chiropractors, critical care doctors, dentists, dermatologists, emergency room physicians, family practice physicians, hospitalists, intensivists, internal medicine physicians, neurologists, obstetrician-gynecologists, ophthalmologists, optometrists, perfusionists, podiatrists, pulmonologists, radiation oncologists, radiologists, and surgeons in medical malpractice cases and in front of their respective licensing boards. In addition, Ms. Eschleman represents healthcare providers in Medicare, Medicaid, and private health insurance company audits and administrative actions.

Ms. Eschleman was the program chair of the DRI Medical Liability and Health Care Law Seminar, held in March 2017 in Las Vegas. She was extremely organized, made her planning deadlines, and was an exemplary leader of a very large planning committee. Due to her exceptional organizational skills and dedication from her and the planning committee, the seminar was a resounding success; attendance exceeded expectations. Her enthusiasm for both the program as well as the committee was shown throughout her efforts in the entire planning process.
